→ Kids' Faves ~

printable worksheets to help you remember your child's favorite things!

How to Use the Kids' Faves Worksheet

This little tool is useful for many reasons:

(1) It will help you with your Christmas shopping throughout the year (just pull completed sheets out if you see something on sale).

(2) It will help you if you constantly forget (which one likes Rocky Road Ice Cream?).

(3) It will help you plan little surprises along the way (which helps your child feel like you are thinking of him or her—because you are!).

(4) It will help you get to know your child better.

Here are some tips for using it/implementing it:

(1) Have a family night in which everybody fills in all or part of it. (Since it is long, you could have them do the even questions one family night and the odd questions another family night.)

a. Plan some things/foods, etc., that you THINK are kids' faves...and after they turn in their sheets, tell them what you made and whose favorite you thought it was. (This is eye opening!)

b. Pass around the papers and have everybody fill them in (or half of them). We liked to do this type of thing while we listened to audio/radio dramas or fun music. Try to keep the kids from discussing as they are writing.

c. Have Mom or Dad collect them and read some answers here and there (depending on time available) and have people guess who wrote that. (This is eye opening too!)

d. Have the snacks you bought or prepared and vote on a family movie or play a family game.

(2) Meet one on one with each child and fill it in with him or her. This helps the ones who can't think of anything at the time since you are there to prompt them. This is especially good for younger kids or weak writers.

(3) Make copies! Things get lost easily, and you want your kids to feel like this is important to you.

(4) Be sure you tell them that you want to have this list to surprise them or for gift buying, etc., but tone it down a little if your kids are extremely thing-driven or have high expectations that you are ALWAYS bringing them home a Starbucks, etc. (Honestly, this works better with kids who are not over-indulged already.)

(5) You can always get the lists out and use for dinner time discussions too. For example, "Let's see if we can guess what Johnny's favorite movie is," etc. Or "I'm going to read the favorite candies lines, and we will guess whose page we think that is." This is also a good way to help the kids focus on siblings and not just themselves.

(6) Type this, print it, and keep each one in your purse or billfold (or scan it/take a picture of it, and store it on your phone). You want to have it at your fingertips.

hame:_____

1. Favorite homemade sweet treats
2. Favorite homemade meals
3. Favorite store bought treat or snack
4. Favorite drinks
5. Favorite school supplies
6. Favorite hobby supplies
7. Favorite books
8. Favorite movies
9. Favorite colors
10. Favorite Bible stories
11. Favorite jewelry types/pieces (if applicable)
12. Favorite songs
13. Favorite bands or groups
14. Favorite toiletry items
15. Favorite breakfast cereal
16. Favorite foods we seldom or never buy
17. Favorite gum
18. Favorite chocolate candy
19. Favorite hard candy or mint
20. Favorite pens, highlighters, markers, etc
21. Favorite card games
22. Favorite board games

23. Favorite outside activity
24. Favorite fast food restaurant
25. Favorite sit down restaurant
26. Favorite free activity
27. Favorite activity that costs
28. Favorite gadgets
29. Favorite scents, nail polish, etc
30. Favorite style of socks
31. Favorite ice cream flavor
32. Favorite ice cream treat
33. Favorite treat or snack place
34. Favorite family day activity
35. Favorite way to order a sandwich
36. Favorite sandwich out
37. Favorite sandwich at home
38
39
40
41
42
43

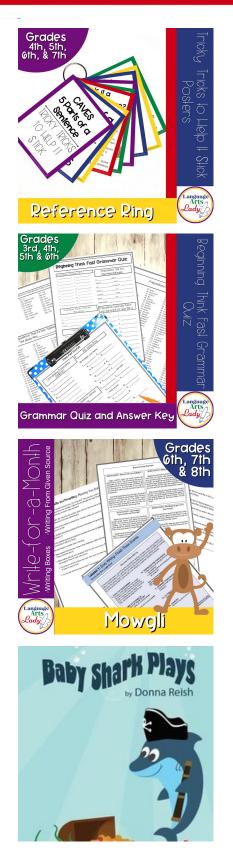

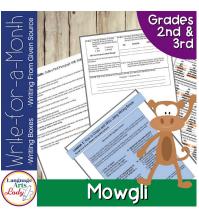

Get your EIGHTEEN free teaching products (including teaching videos and full writing lessons!) TODAY! And....grammar, spelling, and writing tips galore! Sign up here!

Learn How I Teach...language arts, writing, usage, and more at my weekly videocast/podcast, How I Teach...With Language Arts Lady!

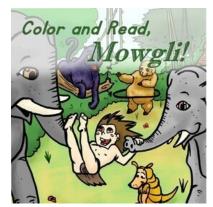

Click on My Other Products!

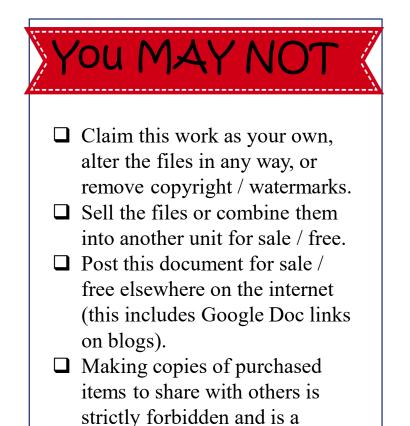

Donna Reish, mother of seven grown children and thirty-two year homeschool veteran, is a prolific curriculum writer, blogger, and teacher from Indiana. She graduated from Ball State University with a degree in Elementary Education and did master's work in Reading Specialist following that. Donna began writing curriculum for a publisher out of Chicago specifically for homeschoolers twenty years ago. Following the completion of those thirty books over ten years, she and her husband started a small press publishing company writing materials for homeschools and Christian schools. With the surge of digital products, Donna now writes curriculum books that are digital downloads (both secular and faith-based products), bringing her total curriculum products to 120 books of 50,000+ pages. Donna tests all of her books with 50-80 in-person students each year locally before they are published--and this is her real love: Seeing the faces of students who achieve language arts goals that they never thought were possible using her creative, incremental approaches and materials. Donna teaches parents, teachers, and teacher parents, about grammar, language arts, writing, reading, learning, and more at her teaching website, Language Arts Lady Blog, and through her videocasts/podcasts, How I Teach.

Want to know how to get up to three FREE teaching products per week from various TPT sellers? Want to be a part of a community of homeschoolers who love great deals, free products, and sound advice? Join me over in my FB group, Homeschoolers Love Teachers Pay Teachers!

Terms of Use

violation of the TOU / law.

- Use free and purchased items for your own classroom students, or your own personal use.
- Reference this product in blog posts, at seminars, professional development, workshops, or other such venues, ONLY if both credit is given to myself as the author, and a link back to my TpT store is included in the presentation.
- Purchase licenses at a great discount for other teachers to use this resource.

© Language Arts Lady. All rights reserved. Purchase of this unit entitles the purchaser the right to reproduce the pages in limited quantities for single classroom use only. Duplication for an entire school, an entire school system or commercial purposes is strictly prohibited without written permission from the publisher. Copying any part of this product and placing in on the internet in any form (even a personal/classroom website) is strictly prohibited and is a violation of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA). These items can be picked up in a Google search and then shared worldwide for free without meaning to.

Thank you for your purchase! Your business means a lot to me. I hope you and your students enjoy using this product. If you have any questions, please email me at languageartsladymail@gmail.com. If purchased on TpT, please remember to leave feedback so you will earn TpT Credits, which may be applied to your future purchases.

Get Free Information and Content at Press /____ These Two Websites (click on logos) Teaching Services

> Thank you to the following artists and font specialists for helping to improve the look of this product. If you are ever in need of a clip artist or font specialist, please don't hesitate to look them up!

Character

ink